The intention was that the Act would permit the release of the Irish Republican Army prisoners who had been in prison in Great Britain. Section 1 stated that at least one of the seven prisoners would be released every month. Section 2 stated that the seven prisoners would be released on or before the first day of the first month immediately following the first day of the week in which the Act received royal assent. Section 2 was repealed by the Statute Law Revision (Ireland) Act 1890. Section 4 was amended by the Statute Law Revision (Ireland) Act 1960 to permit the release of the Irish Republican Army prisoners who had been in prison in Great Britain.
