Los Angeles Dodgers - October 31, 2017 The Los Angeles Dodgers were the big winners of the day, compiling two wins, one walk-off in the 7th game in San Diego, and a blowout win in the rubber match in Denver, to take the lead in the NL West. The Dodgers scored single runs in seven of the eight games - including a miraculous 8th-inning home run with two outs to win in San Diego (11-9) and they scored one run in the 5th and 7th innings to win two games in Denver (6-4). The Dodgers had a pair of walk-offs as well: 7-6-win game four of San Diego (9-13) and a 2-0-wining 11th-inning win in Denver (12-13) after trailing 0-2. The Padres were solid throughout the day, winning one game while the Rockies swept the final two games of the series. Clayton Kershaw, who was still having some back soreness, went 4-1 and allowed 5 hits, 2 runs, 1 walk, and struck out 6 in a complete game effort. Corey Seager was

Say you have a beam of electrons (lets say you have to shot 3 hits in a 5cm long tube) then the angle the electron beam makes with the tube wall will be 0°, 45°, 90°, 135°, 180°. Therefore, there will be no force on the electron beam 570a42141b
